

OGDEN PIONEER DAYS

Whoopie Girl Eligibility

Eligibility: Must be female, 16-35 years of age. Applicants under the age of 18 will have to have a parent release form signed. Applications will be reviewed by selection committee. If selected approved applicants will be expected to detail horsemanship experience during tryouts.

Purpose: To select quality, experienced representatives to serve as Ogden Pioneer Days Whoopie Girls. They are amazing horsewomen and ride each night of the rodeo, flying the flags of our most valued sponsors. The Whoopie Girls serve as goodwill ambassadors for Ogden Pioneer Days, making appearances and participating in many events and activities during the monthlong celebration.

How to Enter: Applicants are responsible for submitting completed application form to batclark@yahoo.com by the specified entry deadline.

Selection Process: A selection committee will review applications and invite those qualified to participate in tryouts. If any of selected girls are unable to perform, we will move to selected alternates.